Twenty-one years are nearly over, and the ghastly's curse is about to be fulfilled . . . but there may not be anyone left alive to care. Armies from the north are marching on Nathar, whose king lies dying from an assassin's poison. An ancient prophesy is about to come to pass, and it will leave the world in ruins when it does.

Rose, meanwhile, is ignorant of all of this in her forested seclusion with the Beast. Though she refuses to admit it, the Beast is very close to winning her heart . . . but how can she forgive the one who has kept her prisoner for so long?

On the other side of the world, the ghastly is making her final preparations for revenge. As one curse ends and another begins, her plan for Rose will finally be revealed--a plan so cunning and horrific, it will change the fate of the land forever.
