A Critical Analysis of Isaac Asimov's Second Foundation Chintan Ambalal Mahida

It is very difficult task to extend story of any popular novel or film in a series. To make a trilogy or series, you must have some concrete idea which can pave the way to upcoming sequel parts. Even we have witnessed some movies or novels which get unexpected failure even if previous versions are successful . But Asimov's Foundation series doesn't fall into this category. After Foundation and Foundation and Empire, Second Foundation needs more attention. Like previous stories, Asimov's Second Foundation has many hidden moral and philosophical encoded message. The only thing you need to do is to change your perception about Sci-fi literature. Here, I have analyzed Asimov's Foundation Series because it is not only an imaginary story but actually mirrors our civilization and its problem. I have tried my level best in analyzing the different aspects of Isaac Asimov's Sci-fi saga, Foundation yet I believe that literature offers vast spectrum and if something is left out in my research, I leave it to future scholars to pursue studies that are more elaborate. - See more at:
