Comments From Other Readers

“Reading stories such as these are a reminder of how truly awesome the men and women that serve in the military are, no matter the country. I was amazed at the bravery and endurance of the men listed in these pages. If I were to have one complaint, it would be that there weren’t more stories. Perhaps a second volume is in order...” – Joe B. (Bryson City, USA)

“I read this book around the time that the D-Day anniversary took place, and it felt like an especially poignant tribute to pay respect to the brave deeds that were committed during that time period. The author has compiled a fine collection of stories, and I know that there are more with which he can work in the future.” – Lois H. (Lynchburg, USA)

“These were definitely bigger men than I to have been able to do these things. I am continually amazed at the type of person that can serve their fellow men with military service, and especially when they carry out actions like the ones told of in this book.” – William D. (London, UK)
