A set of two children's picture books by Martin Baynton. JANE AND THE DRAGON -- Jane longs to be a night, but everyone laughs at her. Only the court jester takes her seriously. He lends Jane a small suit of armor to help make her dream come true. She quickly gets the chance to prove herself, too, when an enormous dragon comes and steals the Prince! JANE AND THE MAGICIAN -- The King is giving a party to cheer up the Prince, so he sends Jane and friend the dragon to find his missing magician. But what they find is a problem -- a very wet and watery problem. Will the Prince's party be a washout? Or can Jane find a magical solution?
